

WHAT'S COOKING AT MTI

December 14, 2006

Well ,here it is, Winter break, holidays,cooking,over eating, mid-term and starting a new year and a new semester before you know it. We've come a long ways in Culinary in a short five months. The brand new culinary students are now ol' timers with plenty of skills and confidence. Many have secured jobs in various kitchens and one student has been accepted to Johnson & Wales University. What a great bunch we've been blessed with.

Advisory breakfast

Everyone was suprised of their new skills

Plenty of smiles

Cheese demo

What da....?

what da....? II

Mr. "C" is still in Texas with his son so I'm sure he would pass along something to you like..."Have a Merry, Merry and a Happy, Happy" I know he and his family will be happy to have their son Jeff home for the holidays! I hope everyone has a wonderful, well deserved, vacation. Until next year.....Go cook Sumthin'!

Chef Bert