Florida Residency Classification

For tuition purposes, all adult applicants to MTI must prove that they have established and maintained Florida residency for at least 12 complete months prior to their first day of school. Please complete this form and submit it with the MTI Adult Student Application for Admission. Non-resident students will be required to pay out-of-state tuition rates.

Dependent or Independent Student?

- Applicants under age 24 (on the first day of enrollment) who are unmarried are considered a dependent student and a legal resident of the same state as his/her parent/guardian.
- Dependent students should have spouse, parent or legal guardian complete the below residency affidavit.
- Applicants under age 24 can claim independence with proof of acceptable income and based on strict guidelines from Florida Statutes. See FACTS.org:
